Team Canada Fight Shirt

The 2024 Team Canada fight shirt is made out of a light weight, breathable moisture wicking shirt. It is designed to fit loose such that it feels comfortable and allows it to breath.

This item does fit large, we recommend moving down one size as it does have compression properties!

The sample received does have some amendments that will be applied such as the white stripe being removed (Back).

Team Canada Fight Shorts

The new 2024 Team Canada fighting shorts are made from durable material, with an amazing design that will help our team stand out in the ring! We did not have time to process a sample in time for the Catalog, but we are taking all necessary steps to ensure the final result is worthy of this team! Here are the mocks for a taste of the final look!

The shorts feature your typical Thai Boxing Short with WKU Insignia patched on!

Orders

We will be placing a bulk order on the 17th of July for all above items. Much of the custom attire requires a MOQ and typically that number is around 30 units. Once we place the bulk order, we may not be able to amend the order (add or modify units), depending on the manufacturing stage. Orders will take approximately 10 Weeks to arrive in Canada, at which time WKU World Canada will ship the individual orders to competitor's requested addresses.
